MR. HEPPWORTH DIXON'S NEW WORK.

WHITE CONQUEST.

By WILLIAM HEPPWORTH DIXON.
"The best-written, most instructive, and most entertaining book that Mr. Dixon has published since 'New America.'—Athenaeum.
"White Conquest" is no whit inferior to the author's other writings; indeed, in some respects, it may be said to be superior. It has all the old brilliancy of description, the same sense of humour, and the wonderful accumulation of facts, historical and otherwise, to which Mr. Heppworth Dixon has accustomed his admirers; and besides these merits the volumes acquire an additional charm from the fact that they deal with romantic and comparatively unknown regions; and a special value, because they deal with the gravest of modern social problems."

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

NEW EDITION OF THE

DRAMATIC WORKS OF SHAKESPEARE,

WITH BIOGRAPHICAL INTRODUCTION BY

HENRY GLASSFORD BELL.

ALSO, A COMPLETE INDEX AND GLOSSARY.

Six Volumes, extra fcap. 8vo, cloth, 15s.; full morocco, gilt edges, 45s.

The aim of the Publishers of this Edition has been to present, in a handsome and convenient form and at a moderate price, a complete and accurate version of the whole of SHAKESPEARE'S DRAMATIC WORKS. The text has been carefully collated from the most approved versions. No new readings have been introduced, but the best authorities have been followed in those which have been selected. The Biographical Introduction contains the story of the Poet's life, and omits, it is believed, no fact of any importance that is known regarding him.

"A neat edition of the works of the world's greatest poet, carefully edited and prefaced by an intelligent introduction."—Publishers' Circular.

"It is a convenient and neatly printed edition of the great poet; and the biographical introduction is agreeably written."—Athenæum.

SAMUEL TINSLEY'S NEW PUBLICATIONS.

ITALY REVISITED. By A. Gallenga (the Times Correspondent), Author of "Country Life in Piedmont," &c. 2 vols. demy 8vo, 30s.

THE TIMES, Nov. 11, 1875.—"Mr. Gallenga's new volumes on Italy will be welcome to those who care for an unprejudiced account of the prospects and present condition of the country.
He has written repeatedly on the subject before, but it is a changed world in the Peninsula since he published his 'Italy in 1848.' What used to be scouted as the dreams of enthusiasts have been more than realised, and the forebodings of statesmen who were at once sanguine and foresighted have been falsified to their own astonishment, by the most unlooked for results.
Mr. Gallenga was an eye-witness of those events of 1848; subsequently he accompanied the allied armies of liberation in the short and sharp campaign that was decided on the heights of Solferino. And now he relates his impressions on revisiting his native country, when she has been left for some years to herself, after being absolutely relieved of foreign occupation.....
In noticing Mr. Gallenga's most interesting volumes, we have been obliged to confine ourselves chiefly to topics of grave national importance, and we wish we could also have done justice to his impressions of the Italy he revisited as seen in its lighter and social aspects. We can only say we believe the chapters we have neglected will prove the most attractive to the many English who are familiar with the country he describes so well, and we recommend the people who think of wintering there to get the book and read it for themselves."

TO BOOKSELLERS AND OTHERS.

So many offers of Shakespeariana are kindly made to me and so few are accepted, it may save trouble if I publicly state what I am in search of. No editions of Shakespeare or any kind of printed Shakespeariana issued after the year 1616 are required, but—

1. A large sum will be paid for any undescribed edition of any of Shakespeare's plays issued during the life-time of the poet. Fragments of any such would also be very acceptable, and I will thankfully give £50 for a single title-page alone of any such undescribed edition. I do not care for any which are readily accessible in our public libraries.

2. The old English romance of Hamlet or Hamlet was published in the sixteenth century. No copy of so early a date is now known to exist, but will no doubt turn up sooner or later in some old cupboard or attic. I would give £200 for a perfect copy, or a liberal sum for any sort of a fragment of it.

3. I want early copies of Tarlton's Jests, Kemp's Jigs, and such like; also, any records respecting the old English theatres or actors.

4. As a rule, anything dated after the year 1616 is of no use to me, but manuscripts of a later date referring to the theatres of Shakespeare's age or any even of the last century containing traditional notices of Shakespeare or sketches made before the year 1830 of objects of Shakespearian interest at or near Stratford-on-Avon, would also be acceptable.

5. A very large plan of the Clopton estates near Stratford-on-Avon made in the year 1599 was in the possession of the late Captain Saunders of that town. I should be happy to give 25l. for it.

6. The sum of £200 would be given for a perfect copy of the first edition of Greene's Groatworth of Witte, 1592.

Communications on any of these subjects would be gratefully received by J. O. HALLIWELL-PHILLIPS, No. 11 Tregunter Road, West Brompton, London, S.W.

CELEBRITIES I HAVE KNOWN: with EPISODES: POLITICAL, SOCIAL, SPORTING, and THEATRICAL. By Lord WILLIAM PITT LENNOX.
2 vols. 8vo, 30s.

"Lord William Lennox from his earliest days has lived on terms of intimacy with persons of high political, military, theatrical, and literary celebrity. He has an eye for character, can tell a good story, and has plenty of good stories to tell. His pages are full of interest. Celebrities of the first importance are presented 'in their habits as they lived,' and many will not think worse of the memoirs for the genial and appreciative spirit in which the writer has drawn the portraits of nearly all the distinguished personages who pass beneath his pen." Pall Mall Gazette.

NOTES of TRAVEL in SOUTH AFRICA.

By C. J. ANDERSSON, Author of "Lake Ngami," &c. Edited by L. LLOYD, Author of "Field Sports of the North," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. With Portrait, 15s.

"This book is most interesting reading." Saturday Review.

"Anderson's Notes are wonderfully full of interest, both for the naturalist and geographer. Whether he writes of the fauna of land and air, of missionary work among the Namaquas, or the strange races of remote Ovampo land, he has always something fresh to tell us. The narrative of personal adventure and of scenes of native war is frank and graphic in the extreme." Graphic.

MY YOUTH, by SEA and LAND, from 1809

to 1816. By CHARLES LOFTUS, formerly of the Royal Navy, late of the Coldstream Guards. 2 vols. 21s.

"Major Loftus gives us a book as entertaining as 'Midshipman Easy,' and as instructive as a book of travels. It has not a dull page in it, and whether by the camp fire, in the barracks library, or on ship-board, we are confident it will receive a warm welcome, whilst its literary merit will commend it to those unconnected with the services." United Service Mag.

RECOLLECTIONS of COLONEL DE GONNEVILLE. Edited from the French by CHARLOTTE
M. YONGE, Author of the "Heir of Redclyffe." 2 vols. 21s.SECOND EDITION of COSITAS ESPANO-

DIANE. By Mrs. Macquoid, Author of
"Patty," &c. 2 vols. 21s.

"A very graceful story." Academy.

"A charming story. Diane is quite one of Mrs. Macquoid's happiest productions." Spectator.

The SQUIRE'S LEGACY. By Mary Cecil
HAY, Author of "Old Myddelton's Money," &c. 3 vols.

MY LOVE, SHE'S BUT A LASSIE. By the Author of "Queenie," 3 vols.

SELECT OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

LITERARY WORLD.—"Mr. Scott has an eye for beauty.....In his thoughts there is a refreshing manliness."

The PORTFOLIO.—"Mr. Scott has acquired a very complete technical power in the kind of etching he has chosen to pursue."

LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW.—"These poetic works are, so to speak, the high-level landmarks of a distinguished career in art and letters."

ART JOURNAL.—"Mr. Scott has elaborated his miniature etchings to the highest pitch, moreover he has had the aid of one of the greatest painters of our time."

DAILY NEWS.—"One finds clear and vivid pictorial effects; occasionally a restrained and sombre passion fitted for the telling of old and terrible stories; and always choice and concise diction."

WESTMINSTER REVIEW.—"Although his poetry belongs to what has been called the pre-Raphaelite school, yet he in no way reminds one either of Swinburne, Rossetti, or Morris. Mr. Scott is above all things original."

ACADEMY.—"Altogether this book is satisfactory, both as a production and a possession. It helps on the golden age when for every moment of life there shall be a song to read, a picture to see, a movement of music to hear and to enjoy."

PALL MALL GAZETTE.—"Mr. Scott is always complete master of himself, always able to sketch the most charming thoughts, feelings, or incidents in the most charming way. The painter shows himself as much as the poet; the whole book is, in fact, a wilderness of pictures. It is like an Academy exhibition in print, with this exception, that all the pictures are good."

London, LONGMANS &amp; Co.
